This article has been withdrawn: please see Periodicals UTHM Publishing Ethics on Article Withdrawal

(<https://publisher.uthm.edu.my/periodicals/index.php/RPMME/publishingethics>).

This article has been withdrawn as part of the withdrawal of the Proceedings of Reasearch Progress in Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering (RPMME). We have been alerted that the same article has been published by another organization. This was unacceptable and the decision to withdraw the paper has been taken. After further investigation, it is concluded the issue was due to miscommunication between the authors and the journal editors.

Thus, the basis of withdrawal decision was limited to technical issues and has no effect on the paper veracity.
